‘PRINT MAKERS’

In this exhibition curated by Jenny Bastians, six print makers will display current works using a variety of techniques.

Printmaking has evolved from early stamp and seal ‘printed’ images to the modern digital manipulation of photographs in the current era—with many distinct forms used in between.

Join the Artists for the Opening on 28
September at 2pm to enjoy this timeless form of art.

COLLECTING

KCG would appreciate any clean, undamaged brown or white paper gift bags with cord-type handles for re-use in the Gallery Shop.

In the interests of the environment we prefer to RECYCLE!

Bags can be left at the Gallery desk during opening hours—10am to 4pm daily.

As I write this, it is very difficult to realize that is only 2 weeks since the relocated KCG opened its first exhibition and not even 9 months since the idea of relocation was first mooted!

What an amazing group of 'movers and shakers'!

Yvonne Dalton's Exhibition is deservedly proving very successful—in viewing numbers, comments and sales. People have returned to the Gallery to see it again, bring others and to purchase exhibits. Congratulations to Yvonne!

The Gallery Shop is also gaining a lot of deserved attention. With more space, new exhibitors and a wider range of quality hand-crafted items we hope to make this another important exhibiting and sales aspect of KCG's promotion of artists and artisans.

Three very attractive Window Displays cannot help but catch the attention of passers by All in all we are very happy with the beginning of our 'second 25 years'!

Recently KCG hosted a number of delegates taking part in the Regional Galleries SA "Roadtrip". All were suitably impressed (and some envious) of our new premises remarking on the area, light, street frontage and general 'gallery ambience' that has been achieved. Eleven of us enjoyed Dinner at the North Kapunda Hotel and the delegates stayed at the Kapunda Tourist Park on the night preceding the Gallery visit.

Admiring and discussing the new Gallery space are RGASA representatives L-R Patricia Rose (Tanunda Regional Gallery) Joy Crawford (Belalie Gallery, Jamestown) and Ellenor Day (Yarta Purtli Gallery, Pt Augusta).

The Committee is now gearing up for the Official Opening of the new premises, a public event on Sunday September 21 from 2-4pm. Appropriately Steve Saffell, CEO of Country Arts SA will be our special guest 'Opener'. KCG's history is inextricably entwined with CASA with that link being continuous throughout our 25 year history.

We are extremely pleased that a group of Kapunda High School students are assisting with 'finger food' catering for the Opening as part of their Assessment. KHS's Kristen Hodge is liaising with KCG's Helen Ryan for the nibbles—we do need to know numbers, so please RSVP as requested.

Looking forward in anticipation and back, with thanks to many who we hope will join us on the day.....

Maxine Donald

HANGING DEVICES AND ARRANGEMENTS

Works should be suitably framed. If on unframed canvas the edges should be finished neatly.

Glass should be clean. Check for marks on the inside of the glass.

All hanging works must be fitted with large D rings. Minimum size is as illustrated below left. This enables the hanging hook to fit easily into the D ring.

Any artwork that does not have the CORRECT ‘D’ rings will not be hung.

(This has been an ongoing problem for the hanging team as incorrect D rings makes correct hanging very difficult.)

The D rings should be placed from a quarter to one-third down from the top of the frame with a taut (not tight) wire between—centre illustration below

We do not hang by wire. Please do not use cord.

D rings must be placed so that they clear the inside edge of the frame (so that the hanging hook has easy access) as illustrated below right.

PLEASE SHARE THIS INFORMATION WITH YOUR PICTURE FRAMER.

D rings are for sale in Kapunda Community Gallery.

All works must have a LABEL firmly attached to bottom rear corner of work showing TITLE, ARTIST’S NAME, MEDIUM & PRICE. 3D items should have the label underneath.

The DATE for each Exhibition is listed on the KCG Exhibition Calendar and OPEN Exhibition delivery dates are given in Newsletter (Hanging Around) when the exhibition is advertised. DELIVERY HOURS are strictly between 10am and 4pm on the advertised TUESDAY.

COLLECTION is ALWAYS on a GIVEN MONDAY and is also listed on the Exhibition Calendar. COLLECTION is strictly between the hours of 10am and 4pm on the given MONDAY.
