“Penguin Bloom” has certainly created a lot of interest at KCG, with visitors coming from far and wide specifically to view this exhibition.

The article (right) published in the ‘Review’ section of the Adelaide Advertiser alerted many to this wonderful story. The photographic exhibition remains open, along with paintings by members of the Kapunda Monday Art Group until July 22nd. With books available to purchase and a couple of videos to view, it all makes for an entertaining visit!

FROM THE CHAIRPERSON — MAXINE DONALD

The Opening of “Penguin Bloom” and the “Kapunda Monday Art Group” exhibitions at the Gallery on June 3rd were a highlight of the past month.

Thanks to the efforts of ‘usual group of suspects’ both exhibitions have proven popular with viewers. The work towards staging an exhibition begins many months in advance, reaching fever pitch with the hanging and official opening. To be involved in the process is an eye-opener for our more recent participants and there is much to be learnt from such experiences.

As a totally volunteer-run gallery we rely heavily upon the skills of our willing participants who donate so much of their time. ANNE GONAUS is a prime example, having volunteered at KCG since moving to Kapunda in the early 1990’s. Anne’s positions on Management have included the full span of official roles and since retiring from the committee she has continued to commit an enormous amount of time to the ‘behind-the-scenes’ tasks as KCG’s representative on the Regional Galleries of SA Committee; responsibility for organizing artists, participants and venues for the KCG Workshop and Demonstration programme: all Newspaper and Radio publicity for every KCG exhibition and compilation of each exhibition catalogue. This not being quite enough, Anne is also on the Murals sub-committee, is the Curator of this year’s SALA exhibition at KCG and is working on a Touring exhibition opportunity in 2019. Her heart is definitely in Art! Thank you Anne for your contribution, past and present!

At the June Management Meeting the draft Exhibition Calendar for 2019 was set and offers have been sent to applicants. As soon as the offers have been accepted, the full Calendar will be released. As 2019 is KCG’s 30th ANNIVERSARY YEAR some ‘celebratory’ events are included.

As a result of persistent pleading we have welcomed three new Gallery Attendants to our GA Team, each of whom are currently familiarising themselves with the role. I am extremely grateful to them for responding - we still need more people so it is not the end of that story!

Thank you to the Gallery’s landlord Mark Hambour for the outside maintenance work currently being undertaken on the rear wall of the gallery. Later in the year the committee proposes to undertake some further maintenance to the inside.

Don’t miss the current exhibitions in our WARM gallery— Maxine.
