“Masters with a Modern Twist” has proven to be a VERY POPULAR display with visitors. Lots of comments, laughter and some very quizzical investigations have kept Gallery Attendants entertained for the past month.

The VIEWER’S CHOICE vote is close so don’t miss the chance to cast your vote for your favourite painting!

FROM THE CHAIRPERSON — MAXINE DONALD

Having had a few days away early in May I have returned to 'winter' and back to the very busy KCG schedule of events and happenings!

I was delighted to see those KAPUNDA TEDDY BEARS enjoying the warmth and congenial atmosphere of our Gallery (albeit playing cards). Of course there is a strong chance they will be overcome with fine-art expertise and knowledge from their 24/7 immersion in the current exhibition!

I also hope that they have cast their vote for their favourite painting as the competition between artists is close with only a week or so to go. Although there is no prize as such for this exhibition, a Certificate acknowledging the feat will be awarded to the winner of the vote and most Artists agree that the public vote win is extremely satisfying.

In this issue I would like to draw attention to a couple more of our dedicated volunteers—ERIC CLARKE and IRENE WOODCOCK.

Eric is KCG's 'long-suffering' Webmaster, constantly updating the pages, adding photographs, altering information and publishing this Newsletter each month. In addition to the KCG site Eric also oversees the Mural Town site for KCG. Eric has had a key part in enabling the television interview with Sam Bloom (part of the "Penguin Bloom" display) to be shown in the Gallery for the duration of the upcoming exhibition.

Irene has managed KCG's accounts and banking for several years, through changes of systems and personnel. Finances are possibly the most onerous and serious task in any organization and very few people willingly take on being Treasurer. We are extremely fortunate to have Irene—I do not recall ever having a 'complaint' about KCG being tardy with payments or her being unable to present financial information when requested. THANK YOU SO MUCH ERIC and IRENE, two more of our wonderful volunteers.

I hope to see lots of people at the Opening of "Penguin Bloom" and "Kapunda Monday Art Group" exhibitions on June 3rd. KCG Openings are always 'happy, social events'. Camaraderie and inclusion is apparent and 'new faces' are always most welcome.

There are 16 exquisite photographs in the Penguin Bloom display. These and the book will be available for purchase throughout the exhibition. The Kapunda Monday Art Group is an eclectic group of artists brought together to learn something more or new about art, or perhaps to fulfil a childhood dream to draw. A variety of media and a wide range of subjects are demonstrated within the group.

Over all, these two exhibitions, when presented together should appeal to a wide range of viewers.

Can I encourage everyone within reasonable proximity to become involved in YOUR Gallery. Our lives are busy, but should we ignore the company of others, the beauty and inspiration of 'the arts' and the sheer joy of being an integral member of our community. I would love to hear from you.

Maxine.

Mural Town Update

Behind the scenes, even in this cold weather things are happening! The Council Chambers mural is being ‘made’ ready to install and the updated mural pamphlet is available.

Meanwhile the Newsagency wall in Lucas Street continues to progress!

The Lord Palmerston Hotel (right hand side above) is taking shape, with the characters to its left almost completed.

The amount of mural material in Kapunda is absolutely amazing, as more and more history information comes to light.

We are indeed lucky to have noted historians and collectors to help the committee work through the many ideas that continue to emerge and enthuse us.

Fund raising continues. Once again we thank those who have and are responding to the need for funds. As more people see and appreciate our town through the mural project, we firmly believe our community and local businesses will be the winners.

NEXT CHANGE-OVER OF ARTWORKS AT THE NORTH KAPUNDA HOTEL DINING ROOM DISPLAY
IS TUESDAY JUNE 12TH at 9am SHARP!

Please ensure that you remove your current work, or have a friend do it on your behalf. One large or two smaller exhibits can be hung by each exhibitor. ONLY KCG Full or Concessional financial members are eligible to exhibit works in the Hotel display.

Artists are reminded that each is requested to assist with some aspect of the display at LEAST ONCE in each year (between March to December).

New exhibitors at the hotel need to contact the coordinator, Carol Boes 0407 747 414 prior to the changeover date.
