‘OPEN GALLERY’ AT K.C.G!

Join us for the Official Opening of

“Golden Summers”

2pm Sunday April 2nd 2017

In conjunction with History Month (May) this exhibition reflects back to the period in Australia’s art history, Australian Impressionism—think Streeton, Roberts, McCubbin, Condor, etc. etc. Local artists are presenting ‘en plein air’, ‘en plein air’ studio adjusted and a variety of studio works, making some link between the here-and-now and the art of arguably Australia’s most significant art movement of the past.

“View of Klemm Road Valley, Kapunda”

Oil painting En Plein Air, studio adjusted

By Anne Gonaus.

Works will include traditional 9” x 5” paintings, sketches in a variety of media and larger works. Some of the works have been framed by the Artists. Others have been mounted and/or framed by Little Glory Framing Kapunda via a kind offer relevant to this particular exhibition, in order to present a spectrum of works for exhibition.

*“Hay Bales near McCarthy’s
Lake, Kapunda”* Pen/Wash
Sketch. By Maxine Donald.

The exhibition, to be opened by the Curator, BJ Moore, is planned as part of an ongoing project, in association with other art happenings in the region.

“Golden Summers” will remain open until May 28.

FROM THE CHAIRPERSON — MAXINE DONALD

Vale Norma! Sadly KCG is saying goodbye to one of its staunchest advocates, Norma McCarthy. Norma's passing brought back many fond memories of the little lady who spent many years involved intimately with our Gallery. A 'celebration of Norma' will be organized by the family, probably for some time in April. Meanwhile our thoughts are with John and the family.

THIS IS EXCITING!! Do you see what I see? YES, it is the exterior door to the STAFFROOM! Internal walls have been plastered, pipes are in place and we are almost ready to paint the walls and begin the internal 'fit' So good to have GOOD NEWS on this front. Stay tuned! >>

The Point-Of-Sale system that Jill Bonner has so diligently worked on for several months will 'take-off' on April 1st, updating the financial system of the Gallery to modern standards. Understandably some Gallery Attendants (me included) are a little 'nervous' about the new system but I'm sure that like all things, we will wonder what the worry was about in a few months time!

The new committee has had its first meeting and is settling in to another busy year. Until the staffroom development is complete and thus the accurate financial position is known, we cannot embark on other pressing upgrades. There are several, but none more necessary than the Gallery Lighting system which causes constant concern. Good lighting is an ESSENTIAL element of any gallery and ours is sadly in need of an upgrade!

The Kidman Rotary ART SHOW Committee are on the ball—flyers and entry forms are being printed currently. (Those who entered in 2015 with an email address will automatically receive these in a few weeks time.)

David, Deane, Ian, Frank, Maxine Jill and Don. (Absent: Andrew) - at the February RAS meeting.

As the 'unveiling' of the first murals in our town draws closer the excitement is building See page 4 for updates.

The committee continues to need assistance for a variety of tasks that do not require a big time commitment. PLEASE consider putting your skills (and you DO have the skills we need, because they are many and varied) to use. Contact me!

KAPUNDA MURAL TOWN PROJECT

KCG has formed a sub-committee to brainstorm and plan an ‘unveiling event’ for the first three of the new town murals.

What should we do?

How can we celebrate this most effectively with a gathering of many?

Have you had ‘event management’ experience and would like to help with this ‘one-of’ shindig?

PLEASE EMAIL KCG: kcg@kapundagallery.com with your ideas and /or offers of help, contacts, etc. etc. Ed.

KAPUNDA MURAL TOWN SPONSORS

The KMT Committee wishes to thank the following Sponsors for their support of the Project

MURALS UPDATE— Danny (Menzel) is now in the process of completing the Post Office mural, adding valuable details and putting his own ‘stamp’ on it and pulling all ten panels together as one.

Anticipated Opening of these murals and the one on the MFS stable door is early in May!

(Meanwhile, who’s face is that on the Bike-riding postie above ?)

Mal (Craig) has almost completed four door panels for the North Kapunda Hotel depicting stables.
