MOVE COMPLETE!

Thanks to the volunteers who ran (well, mostly walked) up and downstairs with arms laden, KCG has now vacated the downstairs Kildea and McNaughton workshop and storage rooms in the Institute for the larger, lighter and more ‘conductive to creating’ room, upstairs.

The upstairs area had not been utilised regularly for quite some time so some SERIOUS cleaning was in order. After two days the area now looks like an Art Studio and the Committee are looking forward to suggestions and organizational input from KCG Friends on what additional creative sessions they would like to see happen there!

One obvious downfall is the lack of easy access, as there are some 20-30 stairs to climb. (We have located a chair on the landing for resting to accommodate those in need!) Access from outside will be via the REAR door, at the base of the stairwell on the kitchen (western) side of the building. Strict conditions of use will continue to be enforced, including that a Committee member must be present at all times that the KCG area is in use. Storage of ‘non-picked up exhibition art’ will only occur under specific circumstances as it will mean having to carry it up and downstairs—not appreciated by the handlers!

We are in the process of installing the portable RC airconditioner that was gained through a Grant early last year and a new Hot Water System has been installed in the small kitchen area, courtesy the Institute.

The AGM will be held in the new ‘Studio’ (as it will probably be known). Although seating may be limited, it will not be a long meeting and all are encouraged to come and see the space first-hand!

COPYRIGHT

The issue of Copyright has, and is of concern to the Gallery. Artists need to be aware that there are severe consequences if brought to Court and are reminded that just because you may be a “Hobby Artist” and it is a “Community Gallery” you are NO LESS

RESPONSIBLE (nor less likely to get “caught”!)

The following information compiled by the BURRA REGIONAL GALLERY sets it out clearly and unambiguously. PLEASE READ, REMEMBER and ABIDE!

- As a Gallery displaying art for public viewing and sale it is our duty to ensure that copyright laws are enforced, which is why we publicise the copyright procedures. It is in no way meant to criticise anyone’s artistic ability. Most galleries will now not accept work that is not original uncopied work.
- THE PROBLEM ARISES WHEN YOU USE SOMEONE ELSE’S IMAGES FROM PHOTOGRAPHS, MAGAZINES, CALENDARS, INTERNET, VIDEOS, ETC.
- Copyright legally belongs to the artist or photographer from the moment of creation. The absence of a copyright notice on a photograph does not mean copyright does not apply.
- In Australia all artworks, including photographs are automatically protected by copyright once they are created and put into “material form”.
- There is no rule allowing you to copy artworks without permission if you make a certain number of changes or change a certain percentage of the original work.
- Copyright protection lasts for 70 years after the creator’s death or 70 years from the end of the year the material was first made public. (50 years for material made for, or published by a Commonwealth or State government department or agency.)
- Most photographs taken before 1955 are now in public domain. Under the free trade agreement with USA if copyright had expired by 1 January 2005 it stays expired and can be used under Australian law. Please check the copyright council website to see what is in public domain.
- If copying from the internet or using clip art you must read the terms and conditions carefully, as the licences may limit ways in which images may be used. Some images can be bought, if permission or purchase of an image has occurred please add this information the ‘Exhibitor’s form’ attached to the back of your artwork. This also applies if you seek permission, or purchase an image out of a magazine, calendar etc as this must be acknowledged in the exhibition catalogue under the name of the artist.
- Copyright does not protect an idea or concept, styles or techniques. Copyright protects the way the idea is expressed as a drawing or other visual representation, such as painting, sculpture or work of artistic craftsmanship.
- THE BEST WAY TO AVOID BEING IN BREECH OF COPYRIGHT IS TO WORK FROM YOUR OWN PHOTOGRAPHS.

HANGING DEVICES AND ARRANGEMENTS FOR KAPUNDA COMMUNITY GALLERY

Because of the Gallery’s somewhat ‘archaic’ hanging system (picture rail, shark line, screw hooks) all hanging works MUST be fitted with flat ‘D’ rings and a TAUT wire. (NOT CORD)

The D rings should be fitted a suitable distance from the top of the work so that the work hangs fairly flat and does NOT tip forward when hung. D rings must be of a suitable size to bear the weight of the picture and allow the hook through.

Works should be suitably framed, or in the case of unframed works have the edges painted/finished neatly.

All works must have an information label firmly attached to the back bottom corner with the Title, Artist’s name, media and price clearly written. 3D items should have the label underneath.
